Dear President Fred:

STAT
Thank you very much for your letter of August 31, 1951, regarding the participation of [redacted] in the conference to be held at the University on World Land Tenure Problems. I have noted the extent of your plans and believe that they will result in an effective and valuable meeting.

STAT
I deeply regret that due to the pressure of [redacted]
[redacted] duties here for the next few months, it will not be possible for him to attend this conference. Unfortunately, we do not have an available substitute at this time.
